The only difference from the past 2K games is the roster and MyCareer. We STILL have the same copy-paste stuff year after year. This will be my last WWE game until they make major overhauls with creation like adding more in-depth titantron creation, more realistic commentary (they could just use show audio), re-adding the Export MyPLAYER option that they had once in WWE 2K17, be more interactive with fans about DLC releases instead of a couple weeks beforehand, etc.

WWE needs to get a developer on the series that CARES. I mean, EA Sports updated their Madden 25 roster, but we can't even get an attire update from 2K... Very disappointing, but I'll enjoy it while I can.

EDIT: Oh and I almost forgot to mention, we don't even get the NXT superstars that show up at NXT Live events like Kona Reeves or Brennan Willams. And that's just the two notable names I saw in person... I'd more than understand if they didn't agree, but it's ridiculous that 2K doesn't even have them, let alone Ciampa, and not tell us why. They're really terrible with marketing along with fan communication.
