About This Game

Intro:

Wars of Seignior is a fast-paced strategic card game that supports real-time PvP battles. Although game design may resemble turn-based TCG/CCG games, game mechanics is more like a real-time 3D card-based roleplaying game – this combination provides an entirely new gaming experience.

Gameplay:

- The decks consist of 30 cards that are automatically dealt during the round, and action points are restored over time. The game is rather fast-paced. Players should not only know their way around the deck but also choose a right moment to deploy cards as there are many factors that affect the outcome of the battle, such as game style, enemy actions and your response to them, and even luck. Average duration of a match is 5 minutes.
- The cards don't level up, but there are some limitations determined by four races used in the game: Divinities, Human, Undead, and Demons. There also are a lot of neutral cards that can be used.
- Players get cards in a traditional manner - either progressing through campaign or spending in-game currency which they get after every victory on packs of cards.

- Some stages of the game are quite difficult and challenging. You will need a decent deck and a bit of luck. The game also supports online real-time duels with other players - the fun never ends as long as there are opponents to compete with.

This game looked fun and unique. I saw the reviews and found that Windows Central rated it 4/5 for the Xbox. So for under $5 I decided to give it a try....and I'm glad I did. Frantic, Crazy, Chaotic, Frustrating. I kept dying....and dying....and dying. But, I kept trying....and trying....just one more level...one more....one more. Crazy Fun Game....even has a global leaderboard.. Great atmosphere! I'm now looking forward to whatever full game this might develop into.. I would recommend this game! After a bit of work I think it's going to be a pretty fun and also quite frightening game to play! ^_^ Brief outline of the game.. Having ended up on an remote and abandoned island, you find yourself in a life and death battle against an evil coming straight from perdition. With each of your four friends possibly being a bone chilling demonic entity that will try to slaughter the rest of the group - who can you trust?

Daemonical is an early access multiplayer survival horror game created by Fearem & published by Gamifier! You and 4 friends spawn on an island and work together to survive and beat the curse.. however, as soon as dusk falls one of the 5 people transforms into a demon that is hellbent on murdering everyone! You have to collect pieces of a skeleton and place them all on an alter to defeat the demon and vanquish it back to hell!

We picked this up as soon as it was released on August 15th and this is what transpired! If you fancy having a look click link below!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=g8L2vp4mrm0>. 1) It crashed when I accidentally alt tabbed out.

1a) I had to force close it via task manager.

Game is quite difficult to get a grasp on due to lack of tutorial in the campaign. It took a bit for me to figure out how to play the game.

I don't remember how I got this game, but I definitely didn't pay for it.

1.5/5. Honestly one of the best game dev games I have owned. Very fun, a little confusing at first but once you get it down it is a blast! Would love for an update to sell old buildings or potentially build your own! Great game.. I really enjoyed this, the difficulty was perfectly judged to keep me going but still present a challenge. Still not sure what I had to do to all those clocks :) Immersion was really good.

I picked this game up in an old humble bundle and to be honest with you it was one of those games that just sit in my library for forever until I get bored one day and decide to see if it is any good.

I enjoyed this game, its def a silly puzzle game and seems more of a game for little kids than an adult, but I still got stuck on certain parts of it.

Idk about paying 5 bucks for the game I would suggest something more like 1-2 dollars if you can snag it when it's on sale. I had some fun hours playing it overall I give the game a 5 robots named hero, bombchell, ultrabot, ibi, and kelvin out of 5 weird♥♥♥♥♥scientists. Extremely punishing but strangely addictive.. Best game soundtrack ever.

FACT.. The game can not hide the fact that was established in 1998. The biggest drawback is only one table. Actually it should be the only comment about this game. Playing this is a waste of time and buying this is a total waste of money!. This is a chill game.. really wanted to like this game, but man is it poorly designed. I get that they wanted to do the overworld thing and tease future abilities by blocking progress, but they do it ALL THE DAMN TIME. Literally every stop on the map when you start the game with the exception of the village is a progress blocker, so you go in- turn around and leave. With no explanation.

There might be a really solid game behind the first 30 minutes- but I don't even care enough to find out anymore.. If you're like me & miss the old Sierra style of adventure games and/or parser adventure games, this is right up your alley. It has some modern conveniences like autofill for the text parser, as well as being able to move via mouse. Fortunately, none of this takes away from the old school feel that Snail Trek captures. The graphics capture the old EGA style, and are quite reminiscent of Space Quest while still maintaining its own identity. The puzzles are simple, but effective. Very much enjoyed the game, especially for the price. Well recommended for anyone looking for a game of this style or want to try out a throwback adventure game.. kinda fun, not worth the price every decision branch just causes some frustrating bs later on. The software dosent work. It's stuck with an error about the network.. Found this game thanks to HarshlyCritical, pretty ok dude. (Don't watch his streams, his mods are whiny and \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 a lot.)

Anyways, the game has a good idea going, but ultimately you get mad when you bump in the wall 300 times then die and have to listen to the same cutscene over and over.

I made it to the part when you need to get past 2 guards walking around and then I just kept going up in flames... so yeah.

Try it out.
