Welcome to Macintosh Week

📅 May 13, 2017 👤 Phil "Shadsy" Salvador

 Welcome to Macintosh Week.

Today kicks off Macintosh Week on The Obscuritory! May 13th is the anniversary of the release of Apple's System 7 operating system, which added color to the Macintosh interface. It's an arbitrary holiday and good enough reason to do a special week.

Through May 19th, the blog will have this novelty Mac theme, lovingly named Clarus after the unofficial Mac mascot Clarus the Dogcow. I'm planning two Macintosh posts on here and will be sharing more Mac-related content on the Obscuritory Tumblr. Follow along on both!

Like the Galapagos Islands, the Macintosh gaming ecosystem evolved independently. The Mac kindled a unique, silly community willing to experiment and play with the platform's quirks, like its high resolution, early support for color graphics and multimedia, and the first widely available computer mouse. Coincidentally, this week the gaming podcast Retronauts released an episode about the early
